MEDIA ADVISORY

Bullard Region holds Student Leadership Conference

What: Middle and elementary school students attend annual Bullard region leadership conference

When: Wednesday, Nov. 7 2018
   8:30 a.m.-noon

Where: Bullard High School
       5445 N. Palm Ave. (93704)

Students from elementary and middle schools in the Bullard region will work on their leadership skills at the annual Bullard Region Leadership Conference, with a theme this year of “You Belong!” The conference, led by Bullard High School students, will feature networking, listening to inspirational speakers and participating in leadership growth sessions. Guest speakers include Carlanda Williams, the district’s 2018 Elementary Educator of the Year, and Superintendent Bob Nelson. Schools participating are Bullard TALENT K-8 School, Figarden, Gibson, Kratt, Lawless, Malloch, Powers-Ginsburg, Slater and Starr elementary schools and Tenaya and Wawona middle schools.
“The conference is an opportunity for our student leaders to learn together as a region, and return to their respective campuses with the shared goal of making other students feel included and that they belong,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
