MEDIA RELEASE

Police Activities League will Surprise King Elementary Dance Troupe with ‘Lion King’ Tickets

What: The Police Activities League will present King African American Dance Troupe with tickets to the ‘Lion King’ stage production

When: Thursday, Nov. 29, 2018
5 p.m.

Where: Joe’s Steakhouse
831 Van Ness Ave. (93721)
Saroyan Theatre
730 M St. (93721)

The Police Activities League will host the King African American Dance Troupe from King Elementary School at a dinner at Joe’s Steakhouse, then surprise the dancers with tickets to the ‘Lion King’ that night at the Saroyan Theatre. King teacher Mona Tatum started the dance troupe 18 years ago with the mission of promoting peace wherever they go. The troupe practices every day and performs throughout the city during the school year. This will be the first live stage production for many of the dancers.
“We are grateful to our many community partners who enrich the lives of our students in so many ways. Thanks to the generosity of the Police Activities League, the King dance troupe will have an experience they will never forget,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
