Terronez Hosts First Hmong New Year Celebration

What: Terronez Middle School Invites Community to Hmong New Year Celebration

When: Friday, Dec. 6, 2019
5-7 p.m.

Where: Terronez Middle School cafeteria
2300 S. Willow Ave. (93725)

Terronez Middle School will hold its first Hmong New Year event, inviting families and the community to celebrate the end of a decade and welcome a new year. The event will include:

- Guest speaker Misty Her, Fresno Unified School District instructional superintendent
- Special performance by Tsabmim Xiong, an international Hmong performer with more than 30 albums
- Students from throughout the district dancing, playing the qeej, singing, and demonstrating pov pob (ball-tossing courtship ritual)
- Arts and crafts
- A raffle for a big screen TV, bikes, scooters and more
- Food vendors
- Informational booths
“Terronez’s Hmong New Year celebration will be a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the Hmong culture with not only students and families but the community as well,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
