MEDIA ADVISORY

Wawona Students will Take Part in Kids Day

What: Wawona School students will sell Kids Day newspapers

When: Tuesday, March 5, 2019
7:30-9 a.m.

Where: Wawona School area – corners of Gettysburg and Thorne avenues and Palm and Gettysburg avenues

Students at Wawona School will participate in the 32nd annual Kids Day benefitting Valley Children’s Hospital. Both general education and special education students will work together on Kids Day to serve their community. After selling 500 Kids Day newspapers last year, Wawona students’ goal this year is 750. Wawona offers a dual immersion Spanish language program and serves students in kindergarten, first, seventh and eighth grades.

“Kids Day offers a great way for our students to give back to their community by raising money for Valley Children’s Hospital,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
