Greenberg Hosts Special Athletic Events for Students with Autism

What: Students with autism at Greenberg Elementary School will compete in several athletic events to give them the opportunity to enjoy sports.

When: Friday, April 26, 2019
1:15-2:30 p.m.

Where: Greenberg Elementary School field
5081 E. Lane Ave. (93727)

Students with autism at Greenberg Elementary will have the opportunity to test their athletic abilities during a special event on the Greenberg field with an Olympics theme. Students will participate in an obstacle course, Frisbee golf, a bounce house, and other activities. Students ages 3 to 12 of varying abilities will be part of the fun. The older students will compete for best performances.

“I am excited for the students at Greenberg with autism to have the chance to enjoy the thrill of athletic competition, especially during National Autism Awareness Month,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
