MEDIA ADVISORY

Fresno Unified Students Learn about Firefighting Careers at Girls Empowerment Camp

What: Fresno Fire Department hosts Girls Empowerment Camp to encourage careers in firefighting

When: Saturday, April 27, 2019
9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Where: Fresno Fire Department Station 3
1144 E St. (93706)

In collaboration with Fresno Unified, the Fresno Fire Department will encourage more girls to go into firefighting careers through the Girls Empowerment Camp. Students will have the opportunity to explore a variety of occupations available within the fire department. Following opening ceremonies with Chief Kerri Donis, participants will rotate through a variety of stations highlighting different aspects of firefighting. The event is open to all genders.

“We are thrilled to partner with the Fresno Fire Department to give our students the opportunity to learn directly from firefighters and staff about the exciting careers available in the fire department,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
