As part of the International Baccalaureate (IB) Middle Years Programme, all 10th-grade students at Fresno High complete a personal project, with the top 100 projects featured in a showcase. The projects, created during the past school year, consolidate classroom learning with personal experiences and interests. Student projects on display this year include a paper dress, a paper crane project on peace, a custom coffee table, a documentary on beauty, a trebuchet, a 6-foot homemade telescope, a cultural cookbook, community fundraisers, several carpentry pieces, art, and research projects.

The IB Middle Years Programme emphasizes intellectual challenge and encourages connections between studies in traditional subjects and the real world. The curriculum also fosters intercultural understanding and global engagement.

“Through their personal projects, students have a chance to connect academics with topics they are passionate about, and share them with their fellow students, the staff and the community,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
