Fresno Adult School will host the 20th annual Cesar E. Chavez Day of Service and Learning to commemorate Chavez’s work. The festivities will start at the Saroyan Theatre, featuring drama, folklorico, mariachi and other performances by middle school and high school students. Participants will place garlands on the bust of Cesar Chavez.

Students and other participants will then join together for a symbolic march from the Saroyan Theatre to the Cesar E. Chavez Adult Education Center. The march will culminate in a food drive.

“It is an extreme privilege to be part of the Cesar E. Chavez Day of Learning, a 20-year tradition that helps us remember the legacy of Cesar Chavez. As the years go by, we want to make sure students understand the contributions of Cesar Chavez, especially to our very own region,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
