Fresno High School Celebrates 130 Years

What: 130th birthday celebration for Fresno High, including rededication of Harry Coffee All American Athlete Blankets

When: Tuesday, Jan. 14, 2020
4:30 p.m.

Where: Fresno High School Royce Hall and cafeteria
1839 N. Echo Ave. (93704)

Fresno Unified’s first high school will celebrate its 130th birthday with a short program in historic Royce Hall, followed by a gallery walk of Fresno High artifacts in the cafeteria. The celebration will conclude in the gym with a rededication ceremony for the Harry Coffee All American Athlete Blankets prior to the boys basketball league opener. The Alumni Association raised funds to have the blankets refurbished and remounted.

“For 130 years, Fresno High School has been educating students, producing countless leaders and successful professionals in our community. Their legacy continues and we are extremely proud of all Fresno High has accomplished and what the future holds,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
