Bullard Hosts Unsung Heroes Photo Display for Black History Month

What: Photo display honoring African Americans who served in the military

When: Thursday, Feb. 13, 2020
8 a.m.-4 p.m.

Where: Bullard High School library
5445 N. Palm Ave. (93704)

Bullard High School is partnering with Unsung Heroes to host a display of hundreds of photos celebrating African Americans who served in the military. The exhibit will be up through February, Black History Month.

Unsung Heroes is a non-profit inter-generational project that collects and preserves stories of African Americans' military experiences.

"I am really pleased that Bullard students and our community will have the opportunity to learn more about the many African American unsung heroes who served our country in the military," said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
