Balderas Elementary Celebrates Black History Month

What: Balderas Elementary School will celebrate African American culture with dance performances, a guest speaker and food prepared by parents

When: Thursday, Feb. 20, 2020
4-6 p.m.

Where: Balderas Elementary School cafeteria
4625 E. Florence Ave. (93725)

In honor of Black History Month, Balderas Elementary School will host a special celebration for families and the community featuring student dance groups, food and guest speaker Kirk Haynes, chief probation officer for Fresno County. Haynes' topic will be, "Keep Moving Forward." The focus of the event is educating the community about the African American culture.

"The Black History celebration at Balderas is a great way to connect with the community and highlight various aspects of the African American culture," said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
