District Hosts Livestream Discussion on Distance Learning

A panel of Fresno Unified board members and teachers gathered for a virtual town hall on “What really is distance learning,” hosted by Chief Information Officer Nikki Henry. The half-hour Facebook live discussion May 1 included board president Keshia Thomas, board members Veva Islas and Elizabeth Johansson Rosas, Roosevelt High School teacher Rhianna Beaumont-Lamb, Yosemite Middle School teacher Jessica Cisneros and Ayer Elementary School teacher Carlanda Williams. The panel discussed the difficulties and opportunities of distance learning brought on by the closure of schools due to COVID-19.
