Fourth-grade teacher Sylvia Deeb received a Keep Kids Learning grant through Donors Choose to buy supplies for her students during this time of distance learning and sheltering at home. Students will pick up care packages in front of the school following social distancing protocols. Supplies include toothbrushes and toothpaste, deodorant, Chapstick, snacks, drink pouches, food items, Mad Libs activity books, coloring books and more.

“We appreciate all that our teachers are doing to care for the wellbeing of our students, while schools are closed. These supplies will help students exercise their brain and include hygiene items to help them do their best while at home,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
