Fresno Unified Offers Evening Registration

What: Fresno Unified School District is offering evening registration for families who have not yet registered new students for the 2019-20 school year.

When: Tuesday, August 6, 2019
4-7 p.m.

Where: All Fresno Unified schools

Fresno Unified is accommodating families who have not yet registered new students for the 2019-20 school year. As an added convenience, school sites will host evening school registration after normal business hours. To register a new student, parents or guardians should bring their student's birth certificate, previous transcripts, immunization records and proof of address.

"We hope that families take advantage of the convenient, after-work hours we offer through evening registration. Getting children registered prior to the start of school helps eliminate some of the stress and anxiety that goes along with the first day of school," said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
