Fresno Unified's Human Resources Department will hold a virtual Teacher Job Fair as it prepares to hire teachers for the 2021-22 school year. The Jan. 21 event will welcome future teacher candidates and invite them to make appointments to interview with site principals. The district is looking to hire teachers in transitional kindergarten through sixth grade, for dual language immersion, adult education, deaf and hard of hearing and secondary single subjects.

Participants must register online and upload a resume and transcripts. An invitation with an appointment will be emailed to the candidates.

“We encourage teachers from around the valley and beyond to become part of the Fresno Unified family and make a profound difference in the lives of young people,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
