MEDIA RELEASE

District Offers Free Meals over Winter Break

To support students and their families, Fresno Unified will offer free meals over the winter break from 7:30-8:30 a.m. at 43 schools. The meals are for anyone ages 1-18. Meals will be available December 21-23, December 28-30, and January 3-6. The meals will be available via walk-up service; curbside pick-up is not available this winter.

Elementary sites: Aynesworth, Balderas, Birney, Del Mar, Easterby, Forkner, King, Kirk, Kratt, Lowell, McCardle, Muir, Norseman, Olmos, Slater, Sunset, Thomas, Turner, Vang Pao, Vinland and Winchell

Middle school sites: Ahwahnee, Baird, Computech, Cooper, Fort Miller, Gaston, Kings Canyon, Scandinavian, Sequoia, Tehipite, Tenaya, Terronez, Tioga and Yosemite

High school sites: Bullard, Duncan, Edison, Fresno, Hoover, McLane, Roosevelt and Sunnyside

“Over the winter break, we are pleased to continue to provide free, nutritious meals to our students. We hope this service provides comfort and relief to our families,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
