Final Opportunity for Parents to Complete Form about Returning to In-Person Learning

The deadline is fast approaching for parents to identify if their students will return to campus or remain in distance learning from home. Parents can use the Parent Selection Tool until midnight on Tuesday, March 16. The form is available in English, Spanish and Hmong. Should parents need assistance in completing the Parent Selection Tool, please contact (559) 457-3912 during regular business hours.

Students will return to in-person instruction using a phased-in approach. Students in grades pre-kindergarten-2, 7, 9 and 12 return April 6, with all other grades returning on April 13.

April 6:           Pre-kindergarten-grade 2
                      Grade 7
                      Grades 9 and 12

April 13: Grades 3-6
                      Grade 8
                      Grades 10 and 11

More Information on Returning to In-Person Instruction

“We are pleased to have heard from about half of our students about their preference to either return to in-person instruction or remain in distance learning from their home with their teacher. I want to strongly urge our remaining parents to take a moment to respond to the Parent Selection Tool to help our district plan for our return to campuses on April 6,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
