MEDIA RELEASE

Community Invited For Update on Farber Educational Campus

What: Community update meeting on the planned Farber Educational Campus

When: Thursday, Oct. 27, 2022
5:30-7 p.m.

Where: Francine and Murray Farber Educational Campus
901 S. 10th St. (93702)

The community is invited to learn more about the Francine and Murray Farber Educational Campus, including construction progress, timeline, programs, and services. The community is also invited to provide input on art ideas for the professional development building. Designed to meet the needs of more than 1,200 students, the campus will provide a central location for alternative education schools as well as a hub for a variety of other services for students and families.

Food and translation services will be provided, with parking available behind the building.
