Read about the inspiring stories of principals at Tehipite and Terronez middle schools, the music teacher at Wawona K-8 School and a custodian who became a teacher. Find out what drives the intervention specialist at Kirk Elementary School and an Edison alum now doing graduate studies at Purdue University. Learn more about a 1960 Roosevelt High School graduate who has endowed a $5,000 annual award for a Roosevelt teacher.

“This spring edition of ‘Faces of Fresno Unified’ dives deep into the stories of more than 20 of our outstanding students and staff. It provides a truly human look at our Fresno Unified family,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
